1. The International Affairs Department of the FDJ Central Council maintains connections with foreign youth organizations and groups. The department is headed by Gerhard Harder. The "Abteilung Studenten" (Department for Students) controls the work of all FDJ university groups. The department is headed by Guenther Muench who until now had been subordinate to Wolf ang Steinke, Secretary of the FDJ Central Council. After the recent reorganization of the FDJ Central Council the responsibilities of the individual Secretaries of the Council have not been defined. At present, no permanent liaison officer has been detached by the FDJ to the International Union of Students in Prague. The permanent representative of the FDJ Central Council with the World League of Democratic Youth in Budapest is Oskar Fischer, a former secretary of the FDJ Central Council.

2. It was learned that the FDJ Central Council had not issued any directives concerning measures to be taken against the Christian churches in the GDR and especially against the Christliche Junge Gemeinde, a Protestant youth organization.
